

1 interprets this -- and I believe that he is right -- that 2 under this, acts of Congress which authorize various federal 3 agencies to acquire jurisdiction and to acquire land, would 4 be able to do so under this amendment. In other words, the 5 act of Congress, many acts of Congress have been passed in the 6 past which require executive action or action on the part 7 of boards, and agencies, and he was the one who suggested 8 that this be put into the provision so as to make it very 9 clear that Congress could ask for it, or the Department of 10 the Army, or almost any federal agency could ask for 11 a particular amount of jurisdiction.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Storm, I take it your 13 answer to Delegate Bennett's question is "no".

14 DELEGATE STORM: Yes.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bennett.

16 DELEGATE BENNETT: Delegate Storm, you were 17 speaking of Mr. Ladowski?

18 DELEGATE STORM: Yes.

19 DELEGATE BENNETT: Having had some problems
20 relating to acquisition of land, I know how sometimes 21 distinguished attorneys can be mistaken, and I still believe
